sort; for within the heart of every person, a field of pure potentiality becomes a doorway through which the originality and genius of each person can enter the world. We leave behind ideas that are just never big enough to house the extraordinary essence of the human soul. We find new beginnings, the unpredictable good hidden within every moment and every circumstance.

Assembly As A Way To Boost
Happiness

By Calvin Harris, H.W., M.

An Assembly is an Experience, that can means real Value for your money spent on an Assembly, rather than an on-line course or book. An Assembly could be more meaningful than other things. Yale University offered A Happiness Course, and what was discovered was that buying things or buying experiences will bring the same level of joy and happiness at the onset, but Experiences keep making you happy over time, while the excitement for material things dissipates quickly.

HAIKU

By Sue Beck, H.W., M.

(Dharma name: Satya)

(A haiku is a type of short-form poem that originated in Japan. Haiku poems are typically written in three lines, with five syllables in the first line, seven in the second, and five in the third. They are unrhymed, but some poets may choose to rhyme the first and third lines for added challenge. Haiku poems often focus on nature or the seasons, and emphasize simplicity, intensity, and directness of expression.)

FIRE

Ember glow of fire

Lights the log and the story

Of this perfect night.

TRADITION

Like dropping snow flakes, My holidays bring

Holiday memories come, A blanket of memories

Gathering to dance. And warm traditions.

ORNAMENT

MAGIC

Our tree ornaments Holidays stream past

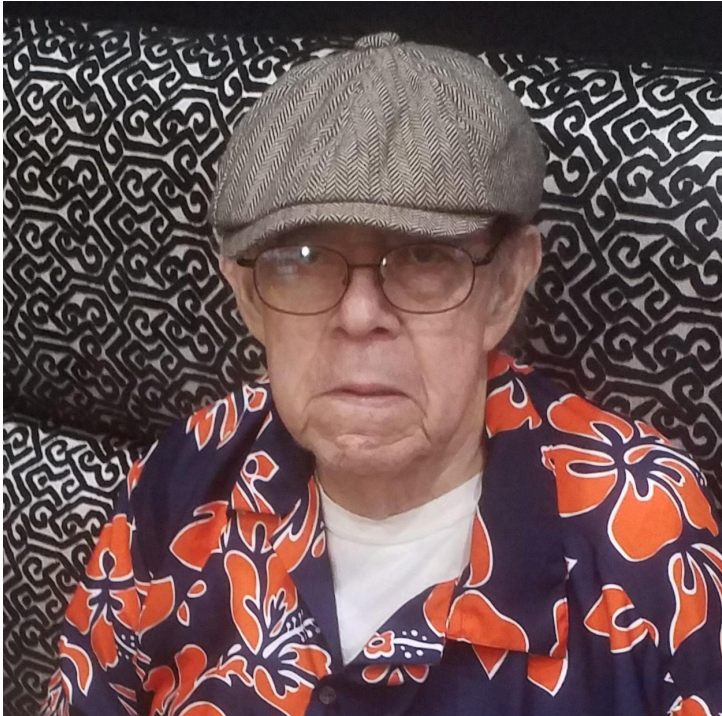

Showcase the evergreen tree Forming reminiscences

Each a memory. Of a magic time

*In Memory of Suzanne Deakins, H.W., M.,
